

BRITISH DEFEAT NEAR PRETORIA

News Throws Populace of London Wild With Excitement.

ENGLISH DEAD 148

The Wounded Number 180
and the Missing Count
Up to 200.

KAISER AS MEDIATOR

London, June 1.—A report is current in the newspapers and on the streets today that the British have sustained another severe defeat, this time near Pretoria. The report places the English loss at 148 killed, 180 wounded and 200 missing. London is wild with excitement.

Rumor of Mediation
Berlin, June 1.—Some belief is placed in the rumor circulating here that mediation in South Africa has been discussed during Queen Wilhelmina's visit to the kaiser. Rumor has it that England would not refuse to avail herself of such efforts should they prove satisfactory.

Four Officers Slain

London, June 1.—On the anniversary of Lord Roberts' entry into Johannesburg the country has been startled by the receipt of news of desperate fighting and heavy British losses within forty miles of the gold-reef city. A battle at Vlodfontein, on the Durban-Johannesburg railroad, reported by Lord Kitchener today, is the most serious engagement since Gen. Clement's reverse at Magaliesburg.

It shows Gen. Delarey is in no way daunted by the capture of eleven of his guns by Gen. Babinington six weeks ago. The garrison of Vlodfontein, apparently largely composed of yeomanry, had 174 men put out of action. That their assailants came to close quarters and suffered heavily is shown by the number of dead left on the field.

England Kept in Dark

New York, June 1.—British newspapers which usually support the government continue to grumble, says the London correspondent of the Tribune, because the British public are being kept in ignorance of the real facts of the war in South Africa. The Boers appear to be making steady progress in the south. In Cape Colony, near Colesburg, they are reported to have captured 500 horses.

Stock Boom Aids Kruger

London, June 1.—A story emanating from Amsterdam represents Mr. Kruger as being a considerable gainer in the recent American railway boom. It is stated that the ex-president of the Transvaal had access to good information, and being a smart business man he bought at the bottom and sold at the top.

LUTHERAN SYNOD ON HOME MISSIONS

Secretary of Board Reports a Total
Contribution During the Past Two Years of $325,038.

Des Moines, Ia., June 1.—Home missions claimed the attention of the general synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church today. The report of the home missionary board read by Dr. A. Stewart Hartman of Baltimore, the general secretary.

The report showed that the total receipts for the two years were $301,342 of which $66,055 came from synods on apportionment, $11,758 from the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, $6,510 from the twentieth century fund and $3,702 from legacies.

The total contributions for all mission purposes in the church were $325,038. The number of missions enrolled was 165 and the number of missionaries commissioned, 199. There are 201 congregations and preaching stations, 17 new congregations, 22 new churches and 23 new missions.

President Has Decided Not to Send a Man Until There is a Change of Attitude.

Washington, June 1.—The president has decided that no United States minister shall be sent to Venezuela until there is a change in the attitude of that country. This is done to signify the displeasure of the United States at the treatment of American citizens in Venezuela.

Bonine Trial Is Delayed

KING HUMBERT HAS A DISAPPOINTMENT

Baby Born to the Queen of Italy Was Only a Girl—Cannot Inherit the Throne.

Rome, June 1.—The queen of Italy was safely delivered of a girl this morning. The child will be called Yolanda Margherita. Intense disappointment is felt in royal circles because the child is not a boy. A female cannot succeed to the throne of Italy.

The princess, mother and child are doing well. Carrier pigeons were released to carry the news to all parts of Italy. Immense sums changed hands as a result of the bets on the sex of the child. The majority of the bets were that it would be a boy.

DEMAND REPEAL OF ANTI-CANTEEN LAW

It Has Caused an Increase of Intemperance, Desertion and Disease in the U. S. Army.

St. Paul, Minn., June 1.—By a unanimous vote of the Association of Military surgeons in session here today passed a resolution in favor of the repeal of the anti-canteen law.

The subject was introduced, with the resolution, in a paper by Lieut. Louis L. Seaman, late of the First United States volunteer engineers.

His paper dealt with the army canteen and the army ration. It provoked considerable talk, but every speaker agreed with the author.

A supplementary resolution by Colonel Reed of Wyoming constituted every member a committee to see the congressmen of his own state and provide for a committee of three to labor with congress. This last committee is to act with the legislation committee of the American Medical association.

ANXIETY IS FELT FOR MRS. M'KINLEY

Her Physicians Report That Her Condition
Was More Favorable
This Morning.

Washington, June 1.—The following bulletin was given out at the White House at 11 o'clock this morning: "Mrs. McKinley's physicians report that she rested well during the night and that her condition is somewhat more favorable this morning."

EDNA WALLACE TO MARRY GALLATIN

Happy Manner of the Announcement
Just Inside of Stage Entrance
Last Night.

New York, June 1.—Edna Wallace Hopper and John N. Gallatin, announced last night their engagement to be married. The announcement was made just inside the stage entrance of the Casino, where Edna Wallace is playing in "Florodora." Gallatin's manner of telling the glad news seemed to be more enthusiastic than that of his fiancée. He put it this way:

"Yes, I will marry the dearest little girl in the world as soon as she'll name the day."

The corroborative statement was as follows: "I will marry him as soon as mother gets well. Mother is ill in California."

Then they saluted. It was the actress who first cried quits. She said: "Now Jack let me go."

He is 27 years old. His great-grandfather was Albert Gallatin, secretary of the treasury in President Jefferson's administration. The bride to be was formerly De Wolf Hopper's wife.

NEXT DEMAND WILL BE AN 8-HOUR DAY

Present Fight for Nine Hours is Only
Preliminary for Still Shorter Work Day.

New York, June 1.—The strike of machinists for a nine hour day is only the preliminary fight to be waged for an eight hour day, according to a statement made today by a prominent official of the machinists' organization. It is said that a demand for eight hours will be made in the near future.

Baptist Minister Resigns

Madison, Wis., June 1.—Rev. H. T. Colestock, pastor of the First Baptist church has tendered his resignation to take effect not later than last Sunday in August. The resignation will probably be acted on at the regular church meeting tomorrow and there is little doubt of its acceptance. Rev. Colestock's views are too liberal to suit some of the older and more conservative members of the church and differences have arisen of which his resignation is the result.

Miss Ella Lester is spending the day in Chicago.

MINNEAPOLIS PRIMARY LAW IS PROVEN A COMPLETE FAILURE

Instead of Giving the City a Good Government It Has Given It the Worst That It Has Had Under Mayor Ames in Years.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 1.—The report of the Hennepin county grand jury made to the District court Wednesday clinches the fact that the primary election plan is a flat failure. It has failed in everything that was claimed for it. Instead of giving this city a better government, it has given it the worst that it has had in years. It has failed utterly to purify the politics of the city. Instead it has given Boss Ames a stronger hold than ever and enabled the corrupt ward politicians to manipulate politics to their own advantage as never before.

Grand Jury Arraigns Officials

The grand jury's report contains roasts by the score on the city officials who were selected under the operation of the primary election law, and the end is not yet. The jury has taken a recess until next week when it will resume its work, and further revelations will be forthcoming. It has already consumed thirty-six days investigating the government which would have been an ideal one if it

GENERAL TRADE CONDITIONS GOOD

West and South Report Operations
Up to Recent Average—Steel
Trade Active.

New York, June 1.—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade today says: "While the weather in the east has hampered distribution of trade to a considerable extent this week, rendering the season in some lines unsatisfactory, the West and South report unchanged conditions, with operations well up to the recent average."

It is the season when crop damage rumors are always heard, and they have come from many quarters, but probably in a large part owe their origin to speculation.

The labor situation is a little brighter. Many strikes have been settled, and others are expected to terminate shortly. Railroad earnings continue to reflect general trade activity, gross returns for May thus far reported showing a gain of 9.6 per cent. over last year, and 26 per cent. over 1899. Bank clearings at New York for the week increased 27 per cent. over 1900, and 21.1 per cent. over 1899; while at leading cities outside of New York the gain is 15.9 per cent. over 1900 and 13.5 per cent. over 1899.

Iron and steel mills are working at full capacity and new plants have been put in operation. Quotations are well maintained, without any effort to secure advances. Farming machinery is a feature of the domestic business, and there is no sign of decrease in the export movement of these products, which has attained enormous proportions.

Lawyer Declared Incompetent

Appleton, June 1.—Attorney Alfred A. Nugent of Kaukauna was this morning declared incompetent before the county court and committed to the Northern Hospital for the Insane at Oshkosh.

FIVE THIEVES ARE LYNCHED BY MOB

California Mob Takes the Lives of Men Accused of Purloining Trifles.

Biber, Cal., June 1.—Incomplete details have been received here of the lynching of five men at Lookout, Modoc county. The victims were Calvin Hall, 72 years of age; his three half breed sons, Frank, James and Martin, aged respectively 26, 19 and 16, and B. Yantis, aged 27.

The men had been suspected of petty thievery for some time. Saturday they were arrested for stealing barb wire, pieces of harness and some hay forks. A search warrant was issued, and the harness and forks were found in the houses of Hall and Yantis, who were arrested and taken to Lookout, where they were held awaiting examination and trial.

About two o'clock this morning a mob variously estimated at from thirty to fifty people, suddenly made its appearance at the hotel. The regulators pointing their guns at the two officers on guard, commanded them to keep silence, while members of the mob secured the five prisoners, placed ropes around their necks and dragged them toward the bridge which crosses Pitt River.

Kaiser Honors Wilhelmina

Berlin, June 1.—The Kaiser today nominated Queen Wilhelmina as chief of battalion of the Guards and Chasseurs. The honor was conferred during a review of the troops at Potsdam.

CUBANS MUST BOW KNEE TO UNCLE SAM

President McKinley Decided to Send Back Their Constitution for Correction.

Washington, D. C., June 1.—Cuba must bow the knee again to the United States before an independent government can be set up in the island. At a cabinet meeting today, following conferences of Secretary Root with Senators Spooner and Platt, it was decided to send back to the constitutional convention at Havana the constitution and its appendix, with a notification that the United States cannot accept it in its present form.

The Cubans must strike out of their appendix a good deal of the unnecessary matter which now appears in it. They must add, too, a distinct and satisfactory definition of what the future relations between the island and the paramount power are to be, in compliance with the president's proclamation and the terms declared by congress in the Platt amendment of the army bill.

Whether or not the Cubans will accept these new orders and make the necessary modifications is not known here. But it is as certain as fate that they will have to do so before the president exercises the authority given him by congress and withdraws our military control from the island and permits the Cubans to set up their own government.

BADGER PEOPLE AT BUFFALO FAIR

Mrs. Frackleton of Milwaukee, Will Talk on "Ceramic Art" at the Pan-American Today.

BIG HORSE SHOW FOR STATE FAIR

Horsemen of Milwaukee Contemplate
Giving an Exhibition Next Fall.

Milwaukee, June 1.—It is probable that a horse show will be one of the features of the next state fair, several local horsemen having talked the matter over and come to the conclusion that an event of this kind could be successfully conducted in connection with the fair.

The idea is to have the show held directly opposite the grand stand, and besides judging the horses upon their trotting, pacing and other qualifications, conduct a competition in the matters of traps and the correctness with which horses are hooked up. Among those interested in the project are Daniel P. Ritchey and Sherburn Becker.

Mrs. F. J. Clifton left yesterday morning for Emmetsburg, Ia., where she will spend the next three weeks as the guest of relatives and friends.

ANNUAL MEETING OF ODD FELLOWS

State Grand Lodge Will Convene in the City of Milwaukee on Tuesday Next.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 1.—The annual session of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Wisconsin will convene at the Masonic building on Tuesday next. It is expected that the grand sire of the order in the United States will be present. Arrangements will be made at a meeting of committees of Milwaukee lodges this evening for a reception to be held in honor of the head of the order. It is many years since the grand sire has visited the grand lodges of this state.

It is expected that there will be between 400 and 600 delegates in attendance at the grand lodge session, which will last several days. The annual reports will show the order to be in a prosperous condition in Wisconsin, with a steady growth of membership.

SUSPICION POINTS TO H. C. WINTER

Man Under Arrest For Robbing the Mineral Point Bank Has Been Identified.

Mineral Point, Wis., June 1.—H. C. Winter, arrested as a suspect in connection with the robbery of the First National Bank, has been identified as Stewart Jelleff, formerly of Ripon, Wis. The examination was called for yesterday, but was adjourned to June 3. Lawyer McKerro of Fond du Lac came here last night to conduct the defense. If the man in jail is convicted and has accomplices, they will be found, the officers are now confident, and it is believed the money will be recovered in the woods near where the man now under arrest was first seen.

When confronted by the man who knew him at Ripon and addressed him as Jelleff he did not deny his identity. It is expected he will try to prove an alibi. He was charged with breaking into a drug store at Ripon and his trial at Fond du Lac resulted in his acquittal, the evidence against him not being strong enough to convict.

He is the son of a well-to-do real estate dealer at Ripon and it is said that his father gives him all the money he wants so that he thinks he does not have to work.

The mill will be of the rotary and band re-saw type, with a daily capacity of 60,000 feet.

PLANS FOR GIANT RAILROAD POOL

Groups With Six Billion Dollars Capital.

It will, in effect, be a railroad pool with approximately six billion dollars capital. It is stated today that when the plan has been consummated the railroads of the country will be divided into four great groups.

BEAUTIFY CITY OF THE DEAD

Extensive Improvements
Under Way in Oak
Hill Cemetery.

FINE NEW CHAPEL

It Has Proven an Incentive to Further Ornamentation of the Grounds.

CARE OF THE GRAVES

Hundreds of people visited the cemeteries on Memorial Day and the silent cities of the dead were never as beautiful as this year. The fresh blossoms on the lowly mounds, the flowering shrubs especially the bushes of bridal wreath completely covered with their beautiful burden of white blossoms, the urns filled with plants and trailing vines and the many carefully trimmed and well-kept lots showed that more than individual attention was given to the cemetery than ever before.

A New Era Dawned

This individual interest has been stimulated by the general improvements which are being made by the Oak Hill cemetery association. Until the last few years the interest taken in the appearance of the cemetery has not been sufficient even to attract attention. A new era dawned when the pretty stone chapel was erected two years ago. The grounds around the chapel were laid out artistically until it affords as pretty a piece of amateur landscape gardening as is generally seen. The little park in front of the chapel in the center of which is a fountain and which is bordered by flower beds and bears the name "Oak Hill" is especially attractive. About $8,000 was expended on improvements at Oak Hill that year.

The New Cement Walk

This year the work of improvement is being carried on with renewed energy. The cement walk which has been built from the highway to the cemetery entrance represents the outlay of several hundred dollars and is an improvement which is greatly appreciated. It has been so placed that it lies between a double row of trees, making the walk an inviting one.

In the cemetery the work of improvement is being carried on vigorously. The foundation for the rest room has been completed and the carpenter work has begun. The rest room, which will cost about $1,200, and will be fully equipped with toilet conveniences, will be surrounded by a broad porch. It will be a picturesque building and one which will meet a great need.

The New Rest Room

The building has been located at the edge of the evergreen hedge, just on the outside curve of the road as it turns around the hill. Its location is such that it makes it quite convenient for visitors to Mount Olivet cemetery also and was chosen with the hope that in the not far distant future the street railway company will find it to its interests to extend the line.

If this is done the track will return between the two cemeteries and the rest room will be near the terminus. It would be a splendid thing if the street car service could be extended in this way as the long walk from the car line to the cemetery entrances prevents many people from visiting the cemeteries.

Many people believe it would be a paying proposition for the company to extend its tracks, claiming that it would greatly increase the general patronage of the cars.

A Unique Fountain

Across the road from the rest room a unique fountain has been constructed of immense stones which have been collected from various parts of the cemetery. They have been piled upon each other on cement flooring. The stones decrease in size toward the top and the crevices between them have been filled with growing ferns. When the fountain is in play it presents a pretty sight, the jet of water coming from several places among the stones and adding small sprays of water to the main spray in the center.

Several Triangular Parks

Several triangular parks, small in size, but attractive in appearance, have been laid out, each one containing two or more flower beds. On the top of the hill the original plan of the cemetery called for two small circular parks and the circular drives surrounding these parks have been cut. These circular parks are bordered by trees and flower beds have been made in them. When the plants are grown these little parks scattered through the cemetery will be an effective addition to its beauty.

STORY OF A SALE OF CHURCH PEWS, TOLD BY A MAN AWAY FROM HOME

How the Superintendent of a Janesville Factory Got Into the "Wrong Pew," and Came Near Causing an Ecclesiastical Disturbance.

"Over in Janesville, not many moons ago, the ecclesiastical peace which broods over a certain Episcopal church came mightily near to be rudely disturbed, and this is the way it happened," said a Janesville man at the Plankinton yesterday to a Sentinel reporter. "There was once a flourishing Unitarian church there, but for reasons which have nothing to do with the case the congregation dwindled and died, figuratively speaking, and the church was abandoned, its property being sold to the highest bidder, who happened to be a member of the medical profession. The doctor's intention is to transform the church into a modern apartment house and with this end in view he advertised in the daily papers that the pews of the church would be sold at reasonable prices.

"Now there recently had come to Janesville a new superintendent for one of the big factories there, and this man having some progressive ideas as to the comfort of his workmen, had in mind fitting up a room in the factory for a sort of rest room and lunch room for the 'hands.' Therefore when he saw the advertisement telling of the church pews, it occurred to him that some of the pews would be just the thing to put in.

"Without loss of time he telephoned the doctor, who told him that he would be glad to let him have all the pews he wanted at so much apiece, naming a low figure, and that he could go over to the church and help himself to as many as he wanted, the church door being unlocked. That afternoon Mr. Superintendent with two men, armed with screwdrivers and the other instruments necessary to the removing of the pews, drove over to the church on Court street, found the door unlocked, and were ready to commence tearing out the seats.

"But it occurred to the superintendent that the cushions were remarkably good with pews that were to be sold so cheaply, and as he sat down in one of the pews he made up his mind that they were stuffed with hair. To make sure he took out his knife, and without being very particular as to method, he cut a long slit in the cover of one of the cushions and pulled out some of the stuffing, which proved to be the finest sort of curled hair.

"Being an honest man he thought that it would be unfair to take advantage of the doctor's ignorance regarding the inside of those cushions, and so he called his men off and went over to the doctor's office, where he asked him to accompany him to the church.

"Off they started again, up Court street as before, but they stopped not at the imposing edifice which had been the scene of the superintendent's operations, but at a more modest building somewhat farther on. Then the fact developed that the first visit had been made at the Episcopal church, and that it was not a Unitarian but an Episcopal cushion which had been thus rudely ripped open and investigated.

"The superintendent said nothing about the quality of the stuffing, and went away with a number of the Unitarian pews, but there is a field for imagination to revel in, when one thinks what might have happened if the purchaser had calmly heaved up and carried off a number of Episcopal pews, as he surely would have done, had he not had some Heavenly promptings to investigate the stuffing."

Offer an Apology.

Members of W. H. Sargent Relief Corps No. 21, feel that an apology is due the old soldiers for the fact that the urn in the Mount Olivet cemetery was not filled with plants for Memorial day. The corps appointed a committee to attend to the work and the committee hired a local florist to fill the urns; meaning both the one on the Grand Army lot at Oak Hill cemetery and the one at Mount Olivet. Through some misunderstanding the florist thought there was but one urn to be filled and the mistake was not discovered until the memorial exercises were held. The ladies of the corps are greatly mortified but it was one of those unfortunate occurrences for which no one is to blame. The urn at Mount Olivet will be attended to immediately.

The L. A. Ladies of Emerald Grove will give their play at Johnstown church Friday evening, June 7th.

That was nine years ago and I am still in good health. Since then that medicine has always been in my house and always will be. It is the best on earth." ## MERCURY AND VENUS ARE EVENING STARS

Astronomical Data of the Heavens for June Furnished by Washburn Observatory, Madison.

The following astronomical data for June is furnished by the Washburn observatory at Madison: Mercury will be very favorably situated for observation the middle portion of the month. On June 15 it reaches the greatest elongation east, and for some days preceding and following this date the planet may be seen as a bright star in the evening twilight, slanting down to the horizon in the same course with the sun and setting at the same point. On June 15 the planet does not set until 9:25 so that there will be a good interval for observing it, if clouds or smoke do not obscure the low western sky too much. Venus is becoming higher each day as the brilliant evening star. This planet also sets at the same point as the sun, but about an hour earlier than Mercury, when the latter is at its highest. Mars is still the red planet seen in the western sky in the evening. Jupiter and Saturn appear in the southeast in the evening and form an interesting pair of planets, the former by far the more brilliant, but the latter also conspicuous and a little west and north of Jupiter.

The principal fixed stars visible during the month in the evening hours are: To the west, Regulus; near the meridian, Arcturus and Spica; to the east, Antares and Vega.

The beauty thief has come to stay. Unless you drive the pimples and blackheads away; Do this; don't look like a fright; Take Rocky Mountain Tea tonight. Smith's Pharmacy, kodak agents.

$25 Reward

The above reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who caused the false alarm of fire from Box 42 at 10:10 o'clock on the evening of May 30, 1901.

JOHN C. SPENCER,

Chief of Fire Dept.

Janesville, Wis., May 31, 1901.

Endeavors Meet

The Junior Christian Endeavor society of the Baptist church gave a most delightful entertainment in the church parlors last evening, which was attended by a large number. The program was made up of musical numbers, vocal and instrumental, recitations and readings, and each one was well given.

ON FIRE.

An exploding lamp; the clothing in a blaze; a paragraph in the paper telling of horrible suffering from burns. Tragedy in this form moves a man to tears. But for women who are daily being consumed by the smoldering fire of disease there is little sympathy. Inflammation with its fierce burning; ulceration, eating into the tissues; the nervous system almost shattered by suffering; these are only part of the daily agonies borne by many a woman.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription puts out the fire of inflammation, heals ulceration, and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves, restores the appetite, and gives refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" is the most reliable put-up medicine offered as a cure for diseases peculiar to women. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Sauvoort, Saratoga Co., N. Y., "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable draining-down pains, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, and I began taking your medicine. After taking first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' also one of the bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. ## Tailor- Made Suits

The sale of suits this year is unprecedented. When one stops to think that almost every woman wants one it takes a great many to supply the demand. Manufacturers have made great strides in the turning out of suits. We do not try very hard to sell suits at less than $10, but at $10 we show good ones, on up the scale they go 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, &c. up to $35. Black and colors in great variety. Large, medium, and small sizes. Extra nice styles for extra small women and misses. During this month and next we will make low figures on suits to reduce stock.

McCall Bazar Patterns

are fast taking precedence over all other patterns. Hundreds of people in Janesville and southern Wisconsin who formerly used other makes, are now using McCall Patterns. We daily get orders from all over the state and adjoining states for McCall PATTERNS. There is a reason for this growing popularity. All 10c and 15c, none higher.

McCall Bazar Dressmaker

Containing over 600 patterns, should be in every home. Only 15c.

Wash Summer Goods

One season seems to vie with the other in creating lovely novelties. As time wears on, manufacturers get more expert, but one might well think that they had reached the zenith of perfection, judging from the charming effects that grace the shelves and counters. This store never had as many or more beautiful conceits in cotton dress stuffs than it shows now. The Dimities, the..... Lawns, the Tissues, the Alexandria silk (fine mercerized cotton fabric), the silk warp muslins in plain, figured, and satin stripe, the silk stripe cotton grenadines, remind one of a lovely bouquet as they are mingled together on the counter.

...LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS...

BOGUS ISSUE OF THE CRIMSON

Harvard's Daily Is Burlesqued by the Editors of Lampton.

Boston, June 1.—The cleverest joke ever perpetrated at Harvard was the issue by the editor of the Harvard Lampton of a bogus issue of the Crimson, the college daily, which omitted regular publication owing to Memorial Day. Nearly three pages of "ads" from the Crimson of May 10 were reproduced. All the peculiarities and shortcomings of the Crimson were burlesqued, especially typographical errors, grammatical mistakes, etc. The paper contained many startling announcements, one being that the two Bancrofts had been dropped from the varsity crew and an unknown man named Swain selected for stroke.

It was stated that the corporation had reversed its former decision and would not confer the degree of LL. D. on President McKinley. A startling hoax was that jars of bacteria of various dangerous diseases had been broken in the scientific school and grave results were feared.

Dr. Woodruff, Mrs. Moyer and her baby were lodged in jail. The arrests were made on telegraphic instructions from Chief of Police Hayes of Lawrence, Kan.

"I don't understand what the matter is," said Dr. Woodruff. "I came here to make my home in Oregon. This arrest is an outrage and I propose to make some one suffer."

Two Men Commit Suicide.

Bloomington, Ill., June 1.—Two young men, John W. Brandt of this city and Alfred Grohans, a Frenchman, employed by Joseph Bullard on his farm in eastern McLean county, committed suicide. Brandt returned recently from the Philippines, where he was made a sergeant for gallant conduct. He was in love with a young woman here, but she rejected his suit, and he took strychnine in a fit of despondency. Grohans insulted the wife of his employer while Mr. Bullard was at the bedside of a sick friend. She fled to her neighbors, and Grohans, fearing they would injure him, blew out his brains with a shotgun.

William Wade, who is in jail here on the charge of making counterfeit money and of having it in his possession, has been devoting his time to reforming his fellow-prisoners, and has succeeded so well that the prison officials say he has accomplished more good during the few weeks he has been in jail than all the visits of the preachers of Indianapolis and of the flower missionaries.

He became a first lieutenant April 1, 1857, and a captain October 25, 1861. He was promoted to the rank of major December 26, 1863, and subsequently to a lieutenant-colonel and colonel. March 13, 1865, he was promoted to the rank of brigadier general for "faithful and meritorious service during the war." He held staff positions in the defenses of Washington, was a commissary of subsistence at Annapolis, and was chief of commissariat, Army of the Potomac, in the Richmond campaign ending with the capitulation at Appomattox.

He served on the frontier and in the war against the Seminoles, and at various stations after the civil war until 1890, when he was sent to Chicago. He was retired in 1896. Besides being a member of the Sons of the American Revolution he belonged to the Loyal Legion and the Army and Navy Club.

WON'T LET THEM RESIGN.

Both Tillman and McLaurin Must Stay in the Senate.

Columbia, S. C., June 1.—Governor McSweeney has refused to accept the have automatic exchanges, but D has McLaurin, but advised them to think it over calmly and see whether they really wanted to resign. The action of Governor McSweeney upsets the calculations of the senators for a sensational campaign and the people are laughing. None had sympathy with their burlesque and they were being condemned by all the county papers. Governor McSweeney said today: "These gentlemen, I see by the newspapers, are unable to agree upon the terms of the resignation. One wants a campaign in August and the other considers that the canvass cannot be held before the 15th of September. The people of the state have appealed to me to return the resignations, and I have done so. If they want to resign the office let them say so and make the resignations effective immediately. I would appoint their successors in less than two minutes and a half."

Will Not Kiss Their Wives.

Wichita, Kan., June 1.—Thirteen men of Mount Hope, a small town near here, are adherents of the belief that men should not kiss women. All of the thirteen are married, and they have just formed a club known as the Mount Hope Married Men's Anti-kissing Club.

CHICAGO MACHINISTS STRIKE.

Demands Being Refused 2,000 Men Leave Their Work.

Chicago, June 1.—The entire force of machinists at the shops of Fraser & Chalmers, to the number of 280, went on strike at 10 a. m.

Both sides say they are determined to fight to a finish. The manufacturers declare that they cannot run their business if they give way to the present policy of the officials of the union. Simultaneously to the strike at Fraser & Chalmers, 2,000 machinists quit at other establishments.

Business Agent Roderick of the machinists said: "Our men will not return until not only the nine-hour day is an established institution, but the increased wage scale is gained. We have been loth to call a strike, but the manufacturers by their arbitrary action have forced us to take action and we intend to tie up every establishment in town that has not granted the demands of the union. A large number of the manufacturers have already signed agreements allowing the shorter work day and the increased wage scale, and we are confident that before many days we will be able to force those now standing out to do likewise. We are prepared for a long fight and will have the assistance of other organizations."

2,000 Machinists Affected.

About 2,000 machinists and double that number of other trades working in machinery establishments may be affected by the strike, which may assume larger proportions than the machinists' strike of a year ago, when a majority of the shops in the city were tied up. Men working in shops that have signed the agreement will not be affected and will remain at work unless an attempt is made to bring in work from shops in which strike exist. In that event these men will be called out.

William J. Chalmers of Fraser & Chalmers admitted that the nine-hour day, as well as the wage scale, would be an issue. He said:

"When the nine-hour work day was conceded it was the understanding that arbitration of all subsequent disputes, including the wage scale, would be carried out under the scheme devised by the New York agreement. As arbitration has failed and the New York agreement has been declared no longer binding, Fraser & Chalmers deem it perfectly natural and proper to revert to the ten-hour work day."

Denver Brick Layers Lose.

Denver, Colo., June 1.—The striking brick workers of this city have voted to return to work at the old scale of wages. Three weeks ago they struck for an increase.

DROWN IN SIGHT OF MANY.

Chicago, June 1.—Thrown into the cold waters of the Calumet river by the capsizing of a small ferryboat, eight men engaged in the work of erecting a new bridge at Ninety-fifth street struggled desperately for their lives and directly before the eyes of many who had come to the rescue three sank below the surface and were drowned. The others managed to cling to floating objects until rescued. The dead are John Bezlinski, 40 years old; William Greening, 38 years old, and Peter Jesky, 36 years old. The accident occurred at 5:30 o'clock, when streets in the vicinity were crowded with workmen on the way to their homes. It was due to heavy swells caused by a passing steamer which swamped the little craft containing the men.

MURDER ENDS PETTY FEUD.

George Rotherford, Prominent Indiana Man, Killed by a Drayman.

Rushville, Ind., June 1.—A murder, growing out of a quarrel over a petty incident, occurred here. George Rotherford, 50 years old, connected with one of the county's oldest families, is dead and Jesse Hilling, 25 years old, a drayman, is in jail, charged with the killing. Rotherford took offense at a joking remark of a boy and struck him. Hilling sided with the boy and was soon involved in a fight with Rotherford. The men were separated, but Hilling returned in a few minutes with a revolver. Rotherford seized a dray pin and attacked him regardless of the revolver. Hilling fired four shots, one of which passed close to Rotherford's heart, causing death. Hilling will plead self-defense.

Via in Texas Beef Trade.

A rival movement has been started in Dallas to induce Swift & Co. to locate a similar plant here. Edward Swift and Joseph B. Googins reached Dallas from Chicago and are camping on the trail of Armour. They are here for the purpose of securing control of seventy-five acres of ground in the packing-house district.

ANXIETY FOR MRS. MCKINLEY.

Condition of the Wife of the President Is Again Serious.

Washington, June 1.—Mrs. McKinley's condition continues to cause the president and the many personal friends of the mistress of the White house much uneasiness. General Sternberg, surgeon general of the army, and Dr. W. W. Johnston, one of the most eminent Washington physicians, have been in consultation with Dr. Rixey and following their conference this bulletin was issued: "Mrs. McKinley is recovering from the fatigue of the trip. The illness from which she was suffering in San Francisco still continues, though in less intense form. She is still feeble. Her progress will no doubt be slow, but improvement is looked for." One of the physicians and a trained nurse are with her constantly.

Eager for a Liquor License.

Monmouth, Ill., June 1.—Notwithstanding Monmouth voted by an increased majority against licensing saloons, Sol Frolich, a Galesburg saloon-keeper, is here canvassing the city and endeavoring to influence the aldermen to betray their trust by granting him privileges to operate a wholesale liquor house. As an inducement he agrees to pay $2,000 cash, erect a palatial hotel and furthermore honor the city by becoming a resident thereof. He will present an ordinance to the council. His proposition will doubtless be unanimously rejected.

Made Room in a Pethouse.

Wichita, Kan., June 1.—The pethouse in this city has been turned into a music room and all of the fifty inmates are learning to play on the cornet, banjo and guitar. Several nights ago a raid was made on the Union hotel and five musicians were taken to the pethouse. They were allowed to take their instruments with them, and now they have agreed to teach every inmate for $1 each, to be paid after they are released. None of the victims is seriously ill and they are able to take one lesson each day.

Cruelty at West Point has reached its climax now that they will not allow the students to haze one another.

Women are Like

Flowers. Healthy and strong they blossom and bloom. Sickly, they wither and die. Every woman ought to look well and feel well. It's her right and duty, but she might as well try to put out a fire with oil as to be healthy and attractive with disease corroding the organs that make her a woman. Upon their health depends her health. If there is inflammation or weakening drains or suffering at the monthly period, attend to it at once. Don't delay. You're one step nearer the grave every day you put it off. Women can stand a great deal, but they cannot live forever with disease dragging at the most delicate and vital organs in their body. You may have been deceived in so-called cures. We don't see how you could help it—there is so much worthless stuff on the market. But you won't be disappointed in Bradfield's Female Regulator. We believe it is the one medicine on earth for womanly ills. There is as much difference between it and other so-called remedies as there is between right and wrong. Bradfield's Female Regulator soothes the pain, stops the drains, promotes regularity, strengthens, purifies and cleanses. It does all this quickly and easily and naturally. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. Bradfield's Regulator lies at hand. $1 per bottle at drug store. Send for our free booklet.

THE Pan-American, to be held at Buffalo, N. Y., May 1 to Nov. 1, will be one of the greatest and most beautiful expositions the world has known. To enjoy its beauties will be worth any effort. The question of traveling to and from Buffalo is one to be carefully considered. You will desire to travel by the route affording the most comfort and interest. The return trip, too, must be considered, as after you have done the Exposition, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and vicinity, you'll be tired and wish to reach home quickly.

The country traversed is the fairest and richest of the Middle States—the most interesting on the way to Buffalo.

SELF RELIANCE.

On an Omaha train out in Central Iowa one day last week, a smiling faced man and a bright little boy, occupied a seat in the smoker. The boy was asking questions, and the man was repeating the question before answering.

Curiosity prompted a passenger, in a seat near by, to watch the conversation, when he soon discovered that the man was both deaf and blind. He was able to talk, because he had enjoyed the sense of hearing in boyhood. The joints of his fingers and the palm of his hand was an alphabet, and the boy spelled out the questions on the black letters of a white glove, the sense of touch indicating the letter by location.

The conversation was animated, because the man had just been robbed of a valise containing a little stock of goods that he was selling from town to town. He seemed to be a rabid republican, for he finally said to the boy:

"Well, the fellow that took it must have been a Bryan man," and then as the train slowed up and stopped at the station, they left the car to canvass the town for business. As they went out the passenger said to his neighbor across the aisle:

"What do you think of that for ambition?" And his neighbor replied:

"That's what I call self-reliance, spelled with large capitals all the way through. That man deserves success."

Not a fairy tale, but just an incident in the life of one of God's unfortunate but faithful workers who for a dozen years has taken care of himself, working early and late at the carpet loom, until his health gave out, and then seeking lighter employment, with the absorbing ambition to be independent and self-reliant.

Cheerful, hopeful, happy, with a face that kindled with enthusiasm as thought traveled quickly from finger tip to brain, revealing to vivid imagination the beauties of a world that he had never beheld with natural vision, and filling his soul with melody that dull ears could not comprehend.

Shut in to self companionship, and shut out from so many avenues that contribute to pleasure and happiness, yet possessing a heart that beats with true and holy ambition and a mind that was filled with light, and bright with intelligence, he takes his place in the ranks of industry, and says by word and deed: "The world don't owe me a living but I owe the world the best energy I possess and in the investment of this energy, I will cultivate self-reliance and develop independence," and he wins success.

There are worlds of people possessing two good eyes, that appear to see everything, and with large ears that take in all sorts of sounds but the strains of ambition, and listen intently to all sorts of voices, save the voice within that pleads with them constantly to stand on their feet and be self-reliant.

There is nothing in this world that contributes more to well developed man and womanhood, than independence. The ability to stand alone and earn an honest livelihood, to feel that this active brain, this busy mind, these strong arms, are God-given endowments, capable under proper direction, of working out a destiny with a record bearing the stamp of self-reliance.

This spirit of independence, and the applied ability that produces it, is worth more to every young man and woman when they stand in the doorway of an active life, than all the culture and refinement that the best colleges of the land produce, and this is no reflection on literary attainments.

It is simply a word of caution to young people who imagine that a diploma is a passport to success, and who are frequently passed in the race by men and women of more practical training for the every-day drudgery of life.

This world is not in debt to any man or woman, for a living. It possesses unlimited assets, pays as it goes, and never owes a dollar. Its silent messengers stand at the cross roads of every avenue, waving banners to the careless throng of idlers and pointing out, not always the easiest, but the most certain route to success.

In the great university of life, which includes in its primary department, the schools and colleges, as well as every other fountain of knowledge, the handbook offered to every young man and woman, when ready for active work, is so simple, and regarded as so insignificant, that many young people ignore it and refuse to recognize its terse and homely teachings as a text book. This little handbook is dedicated "To Life." The title page reads: "Be a man." "Be a woman." On the next page in large type is the command: "Be honest." And on the next: "Be industrious."

And so as you turn over the dozen pages you discover among the practical recommendations: Ambition, Energy, Perseverance, Economy, Thrift, Intelligence, and many other qualities that contribute to well rounded life.

On the last page is inscribed:

"Don't be a crank, but cultivate good horse sense," and on the back cover the simple but comprehensive statement:

"Be self-reliant."

With this little handbook is another dedicated to "Purity and Character." Every well balanced life recognizes both of these little volumes, and coming down to the end of the journey, glances back without regret, and forward to an inheritance.

"Trust in God and keep your powder dry," was significant advice when uttered, and it is just as significant today. The trust and the powder go together and the best weapon for successful warfare is self-reliance.

If Germany intends making a colony out of a portion of Brazil she will have to increase the size of her navy and army considerably more than is contemplated, in order to "insure peace and tranquility," at home or abroad.

The petition of the Chinese asking the American troops to remain with them longer, is, we believe, without precedent in the history of the world.

The contrast between the orderliness of the machinists' strike and the violence of the Albany labor trouble is worthy of commendation.

It is evident that Mr. Carnegie sees something in a university that the inexperienced eyes of Mr. Schwab has failed to detect.

BYRNE CASE IS ON TRIAL TODAY

The case of the state of Wisconsin vs. William Byrne is on trial in the circuit today. Yesterday after exhausting the panel, a special venire was issued and a jury secured.

The state called John Brown, Colin C. MacLean and John Breeman, who took part in the ejectment proceedings which preceded the assault. They told the story of the trouble and of Byrne's assaulting Brown, while Brown was putting him out of the building.

Byrne testified in his own behalf, and denied assaulting Brown for the reason that he was not able to use his hands. A number of witnesses to the affair were sworn and the defense rested.

The state for the purpose of impeaching Byrne's testimony swore John Brown, W. H. Appleby, John Weiss, C. E. Pierce, R. J. Whitton and T. L. Acheson. These gentlemen all swore that Byrne's reputation for truth and veracity was bad and that they would not believe him under oath.

To rebut their testimony the defendants swore Joshua Crall, Daniel McGinley, W. H. Graves, C. L. Crossman and Dr. E. H. Dudley. These gentlemen all gave the defendant a good reputation.

The criminal case is practically the same as the civil case which was tried this week. The same witnesses and the same testimony being introduced.

ROCK COUNTY ASSESSMENT

Committee From the County Board Make a Visit to Madison

Chairman J. L. Bear of the county board and Supervisors F. F. Livermore of Beloit and L. E. Gettle of Edgerton, a committee appointed by the board of supervisors for Rock county, went to Madison yesterday and called on the state board of assessment and informally discussed the assessment to be made in Rock county.

The delegation was informed that a set of rules for uniform assessment would be issued soon by the state board and that the assessors of this county and all other counties would be expected to follow the rules.

County Clerk Starr has been busy today sending out notices to all the assessors in Rock county notifying them that a meeting of the assessors would be held in his office Wednesday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock to discuss the new assessment laws and secure the uniformity of assessment.

Under the new laws the real estate and buildings are assessed separately and all property is to be assessed at its full value.

Frick's Investments in Art.

H. C. Frick, of Pittsburgh, who paid $30,000 for Dagnan Bouvret's "Christ at Emmaus," is considering the matter of spending $36,000 for another art treasure. It is an ocean scene by Turner, the great English painter of nature. The scene portrayed is a view of the ocean with a yacht under full sail rushing before the wind. In perspective, technique, execution, color and light effects the work is said to be one of the great masterpieces.

DR. L. M. TRULSON ENTERED WEDLOCK

He Was Married At Stoughton Today to Fredrika Falk, Daughter of the Stoughton Druggist.

A marriage was solemnized at Stoughton this noon which possesses more than unusual interest for many people in this city. The groom was Dr. L. Martin Trulson of this city and his bride was Miss Fredrika Falk, youngest daughter of O. N. Falk, a prominent druggist of Stoughton.

The wedding was a very quiet one and was celebrated at 12 o'clock noon in the presence of a small company of immediate relatives and a few intimate friends.

The ring ceremony was used, the officiating clergyman being the Rev. J. L. Murphy, a Lutheran clergyman from Muscatine, Iowa, and brother-in-law of the bride.

The bridesmaids were Miss Cora Thompson of Beloit and Miss Frances Bowen of Maquoketa, Iowa, both school mates of the bride at the Oberlin conservatory of music. The groom was attended by his friend and former schoolmate, George Sale, of this city, and by the bride's brother, Elmer Falk.

The bride is a charming and accomplished young woman being an exceptionally fine musician. She stands high in social circles and is one of the most popular young ladies in Stoughton.

The groom is well-known and highly esteemed in this city where he grew to manhood. He was graduated from the Janesville High school in the class of '91 and afterwards entered Rush Medical college, Chicago. Upon his graduation he located at Stoughton where he now enjoys a fine practice. He is a young man of excellent character and quiet tastes and his many friends will be pleased to hear of the happiness which has come to him.

Dr. and Mrs. Trulson left Stoughton at 4:25 o'clock this afternoon and next Wednesday they will sail for Europe where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will go to housekeeping at Stoughton.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. S. Trulson of this city, parents of the groom.

BEYOND LIFE'S CARES.

Death of Fred Powell

S. C. and J. G. Carr of Milton Junction went to Chicago today to attend the funeral of their nephew, Fred Powell. He was a son of the late Henry Powell, who had been a railroad conductor for the last forty-two years and at one time some years ago, lived in this city, when he was a conductor on the Northwestern road. Fred was in California one year for his health and last winter was in Alabama, but came home this spring to die in his mother's house, with that dread disease consumption. He leaves a wife, daughter, mother and brother to mourn the loss of one of God's noblemen. He was a nephew of the late Hon. R. T. Powell of Fulton, this county, whom all old settlers know.

Cashier Pays for Carelessness.

It has been held by a jury in Iowa that under certain circumstances a bank cashier must make good money taken by robbers. In March, 1900, a bank in Northwood was entered by burglars who rifled the safe. O. F. Ulland, owner of the bank, brought suit against Burr Payne, his cashier, for $2,500, claiming that Payne left the burglar proof safe unlocked and that he had left more money there than he was supposed to. The jury awarded Mr. Ulland $323.50.

Possible Successors to Diaz.

The two men most talked of for president of Mexico should Porfirio Diaz die, are Jose Ives Limantous, minister of finance, and General Bernardo Reyes, minister of war. It is understood that Diaz favors Limantous, but the latter was born in California, which is against him. Besides, the army is with Reyes, who is progressive as well as ambitious, and who would not be likely to depart from the paths successfully followed by Diaz.

Popular Sports at Davos.

Curling has developed greatly and this year a new curling rink has been opened.

NID &amp; NOD, BORAIN &amp; ELLIOTT, IN "THE EVIL EYE."

"Artie" and "Tommy" made their first appearance in "The Evil Eye" as the sons of a travelling mountebank and perform a number of marvelous acrobatic feats, to the delight of the Peasantry. It was during this act, in the midst of laughter and applause, that the aforesaid member of the "O. of P. of C. to C." suddenly arose from his seat in the orchestra and endeavored to reach the stage through the boxes. Failing in this he rushed frantically to the manager's office in front and disclosing his identity to Mr. Yale, demanded the immediate withdrawal of the two boys, "Artie" and "Tommy" from the performance. Explanations were useless as the member of the "O. of P. of C. to C." only became more and more excited. The children's law was being violated and the show must come to an end immediately. "Artie" Borain and "Tommy" Elliott, who play the two prankish youngsters, "Nid and Nod," in Charles H. Yale's "The Evil Eye," which will be seen at the Myers Grand, realize some very peculiar experiences resulting from their diminutive stature and youthful appearance, which while serious and annoying at the time of happening, often prove most absurd and ridiculous in the ending. On the stage they resemble two small boys of from twelve to fifteen years, and having served a long apprenticeship in the London pantomimes, impersonating the lively monkeys, cats and dogs, etc., they have naturally developed at the present day rare talent for displaying many funny bone-breaking tricks and rubber like contortions.

In the state of New York there is a law against children performing on the stage and this law is strictly enforced, as evidenced when "The Evil Eye" was glittering in Syracuse a week ago, by the too ardent zeal of a member of the "Order of Prevention of Cruelty to Children."

Matters assumed a serious aspect.

Suddenly Mr. Yale remembered that the mayor of the city was in the audience. He was sent for and to him Mr. Yale appealed, with the result that Mr. Yale was ordered to produce "Artie" and "Tommy" at the mayor's office in the morning. The next day, promptly on time, Mr. Yale appeared. There was the excitable member of the "O. of P. of C. to C." smiling triumphantly. The mayor in dignified silence and the hush of expectation pervading the atmosphere. Through the door came two small men each having on their arm a lady and following them came trooping four bright-eyed children. The mayor after a dignified cough said "Artie" and "Tommy" step forward. The two small men advanced, wonder spread over the faces of all—a painful silence ensued. "Your age, 'Artie,'" the mayor demanded. "Twenty-seven," answered Artie. "and Tommy, here, is twenty-eight. These ladies here are our wives and we each have two children, and—"

"Call the next case," the mayor roared. The member of the "O. of P. of C. to C." made an undignified exit.

PLAYTIME CLOTHES.

HOW TO MAKE CHILDREN'S OUTFITS FOR OUTDOOR WEAR.

Suits For Seashore, Mountains and Garden Which Are Meant For Rough and Tumble Use—Overalls For Little Boys and Girls.

[Copyright, 1901, by American Press Association.] It is only of late years that anything has been done to allow the children to play and yet be able to keep clean. The material of which they are made differs according to circumstances, but probably the best is blue denim. Gaiters cloth is also good, but it should be something thick enough to be durable under great stress and so that dust will not penetrate it. Khaki would be good if it were not so dear.

It requires two yards of denim for either of the funny little overalls shown in the illustration. One takes up on the shoulders, and the other is long. They are for boys or girls, but those for girls might be made a little wider. The one for the smaller child has the front gathered at a yoke, and the legs are made very wide and are buttoned at the back like the pants, and are made quite full to allow for the skirt of the dress worn beneath. The other pair is cut to reach the ground and hold up by means of straps over the shoulders.

At the bench it is the custom to let the children run about barefooted and have the "zoodest kind" of a time. It is not well to let them go without shoes of some kind, on account of the sharp shells.

The two sailor shaped bathing suits are cut all in one piece so far as the waist and pants are concerned, and many bright mothers take the old pantaloons which are past wearing by the men of the house and cut them into the right shape. An old pair will always have at least three-quarters of good material, and they are just wide enough. To make such a suit, sew the leg part up and then sew the two pieces together from the seat to the neck in the back and to the opening for the head in front. Bind the bottoms and sew a strong elastic under the bottom about an inch above, so that it will form a little ruffle. If cloth is scarce, it is not necessary to make sleeves. A sailor collar may or may not be added.

The suit for the girl differs in no way save that it may be made out of an old dress skirt of almost any kind or color. It will get just as hard usage. The tiny man has a regular bathing dress made out of his big brother's old sweater, washed and with a little red thread run in along the edges of the sleeves and legs.

For children who are to go to the mountains or to the old farm the overalls for the boys are among the necessities. For the girls, even those up to 10 years old, there are special suits, consisting of full Turkish trousers and a blouse waist. The trousers are cut like any pair of other drawers as to the upper part, and the legs are wider and reach almost to the ankles. The hem is then sewed in, and an elastic is run in and fastened so that it will hold them at the knees. Pockets are just as good for girls to have as boys. For a girl of 10 it will require three-quarters of a yard of double width goods or one and a half of single to make these knickerbockers.

The blouse is the old style come to life again. This has really no shape to it, only just enough to bring it to fit around the neck. The sleeves are rather narrow bishop shape and have cuffs. If a sailor collar seems too much trouble for a blouse intended only for rough wear, it may be finished off at the neck with a band and buttoned down the front. A pocket should be set on the outside of this at the left side. At the bottom this blouse is hemmed with rather a wide hem and an elastic or a tape run in to hold it snug. The blouse should be six inches longer than the waist line, so that when it is fastened it falls over and hides the top of the knickerbockers.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The quartermaster's department of the Wisconsin National Guard has arranged a schedule of transportation needed for transporting the state troops from their various stations to the strategical points of the state in case of riot or calamity calling for their services. The schedule consists of a set of numbered tables showing the transportation needed for each detachment of the guard, the time it will take that detachment to reach the point cited, the times of the regular trains and the roads it will have to pass over in order to reach the destination. With the tables are sample telegrams addressed to the railway officials that show how the system is to be worked. The system is the creation of Capt. Charles R. Williams, assistant quartermaster, and the schedules have been furnished to all of the railroads operating in Wisconsin.

The Michigan Central has just put in service two unusually large locomotives. These, with the two others that are shortly to arrive, will be used exclusively for passenger service and can make seventy miles an hour with a heavy train. These engines weigh eighty-eight tons each and with tender attached 138 tons. The driving wheels are seventy-nine inches in diameter, nine inches larger than those of any other engine on the road.

During April 21,083 more mileage books were sold by the east bound roads than during April of last year.

A novel engine designed for use of officers of the company inspecting the road has been received by the Burlington. Seats for the inspecting officers are in a cab over the boiler.

One of the new passenger engines on the Baltimore & Ohio recently covered several consecutive miles between Walkerton, Ind., and Chicago at a rate of eighty-five miles an hour. The locomotive hauled a train of six cars.

The Puget Sound mills can now hardly supply ties as fast as they are wanted by eastern railroads. Contractors have orders for 20,000, 000 ties, of which 2,000,000 are for the Illinois Central railroad, and many for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul.

Owing to the difficulty of getting telegraph poles rapidly in large numbers, the work of repairing the damages of the ice storm of March is progressing slowly. All along the Chicago lines are broken poles, their armed heads wired up to fence posts, and in many places the wires are carried over a post space to a distant post. Poles are now arriving and being dumped along the right of way and within a short time the old wrecks will be replaced and cleaned up.

The Buffalo Fair at Night.
The Pan-American memory which will linger longest is the night scene. Essentially an out-of-door fair, the electrical display surpasses expectation. All that art and ingenuity can do to heighten the effect has been done. As the half hour of gloaming comes on, the buildings will be deserted; even in the Midway, the spicuous barker, that "Man that while the puppets play, Through nose expoundeth what they say," forsakes his post and takes his stand in the Court of Fountains.

And then, when the dusk has deepened, a faint glow appears on the lamp-posts—roses of electric bulbs—then on archways and eaves and pinnacles; the panels of the domes are outlined, gilded groups high up on the buildings begin to shine, and the tower becomes effulgent. The glow increases, star points sparkle from every building, the roofs and sides, the porticoes, the entrances are bathed in incandescent fire, while the Tower, now fairly ablaze from base to top, stands a radiant monument to that new force whose name it bears. Let the visitor behold the illumination from where he will—if through the archway of the Stadium's massive screen, the Tower stands out as that of the mirage city of a weary caravan; if from the Meadow Road in the neighboring park, it is as if Mustafa's son had rubbed his wonderful lamp and bidden a city beautiful deep and lasting. What matters it to be; whenever it is seen, the effect is the same, the memory of it to recall the number of the hundreds of thousands of electric bulbs which are emulously aglow, or to speculate on what the night scenes of this exposition will be when the electric fountains are really playing and the scores of hidden searchlights mingle the sparkling iridescence with the golden glow of these early days.

The world has never seen a sight like this, nor will it again until another Niagara shall elsewhere render decorative lighting cheap enough to warrant, as at Buffalo, the attempt, almost successful, to make the lights of night more imperiously beautiful than are the lights of day.—From "The Pan-American on Dedication Day," by William H. Hotchkiss in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for June.

Memorial day was observed here in the customary manner. A procession composed of the G. A. R., W. R. C., college students, high school pupils and citizens formed at the school building and led by the college band, marched to the cemetery where appropriate exercises were conducted by the Grand Army and the Graves decorated.

Arrangements are being made for a flag raising on June 13, at 10:30 a. m. in school district Joint 4, Milton and Lima, situated two miles east of this village, known as the Vickersman school house. Among those who are to take part in the exercises are senator Whitehead, Superintendent Thorne and Miss Bessie E. Clarke. Good music will be furnished and a very pleasant occasion is anticipated. An invitation is extended to all to come and bring well filled lunch baskets as a picnic dinner will be one feature of the day.

Thursday afternoon the college boys and the Lima Stars had a game of ball, but the grounds were wet and the ball slippery which prevented much of a game. The visitors had Cole and E. Green to help them out and the college boys had Fairman in the box and Gates from the Junction. It was too lopsided to be interesting, the college winning by a score of 21 to 4. Batteries: Stars: Cashore, Cole and Robinson. College: Fairman and Burdick. Umpire, W. P. Marquart.

The high school field day events occurred on Wednesday forenoon and drew quite a crowd. We have not space for the events and names of the winners. Batteries: Milton; Rice and Johansen. Lima, Frebeorn, Davidson, Risdon and Howard. Umpire, E. S. Green.

Then came the event of the day—a ball game between the high school and college girls, which the "Highs" won by a score of 12 to 11. Batteries: Highs; Davidson, McCulloch and Johansen. College; Holmes and Plumb. Umpire, M. H. Place. The following were the players: College—Misses Plumb, Holmes, Blanche and Lillian Babcock, Jones, Risdon, Ingalls, Runney and Nelson. ## UNITED STATES AS A WORLD POWER

Comment of an English Paper on the Recent Decision of the Supreme Court.

London, June 1.—Discussing the United States Supreme Court decision, the Westminster Gazette editorially says:

The world at large stands to gain something by this momentous decision by which congress may devise for the dependencies a form of government outside the American constitution. Without the decision the United States government would have been unable to adopt a more liberal trade policy outside of America than within without disarranging the whole of their continental fiscal system.

The relation of America to Europe and the world is profoundly modified by the new departure. Colonies mean a navy, a navy means naval bases, and coaling stations, and naval bases are insecure unless they are backed by the possession of a Hinterland. This is the logic of imperialism, and it may lead the Americans as far as it has led us. Moreover by stepping outside their continent the Americans undoubtedly weaken the force of the Monroe doctrine.

There is a certain reciprocity in the present arrangement to conciliate Europeans to their exclusion from South America, but if the United States plunges into Welt-war politics equipped with a strong navy and an American canal, enabling it to concentrate on either ocean, she can hardly claim to compete on the principle which limits liability while putting no limit on her expansion. The entrance of the United States on the scene as a world power is already regarded as a highly disturbing factor by the European chancelleries.

The new departure makes it more important than before for the British and Americans, by all possible means, to keep on good terms with each other and settle by friendly negotiation all outstanding differences.

SHEEP HUSBANDRY BEING ENCOURAGED

Northwestern Railway Company Aiding Farmers to Establish Wool Industry in North Wisconsin.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., June 1.—The lines in Northern Minnesota and the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha, working independently, are encouraging sheep husbandry in the northern sections of both Minnesota and Wisconsin, with a view of creating a wool producing territory that will become an important factor in the market.

Since the first of the year the Omaha has induced three sheep experts to locate in Barron and Burnett counties, Northern Wisconsin, and experiment with sheep raising on a large scale. Each has already started flocks. In the northern counties of Minnesota, especially in Red Lake, Marshall, Kittston and Roseau, several hundred farmers have started small flocks with the intention of maintaining them permanently for the wool clip.

The experiments in both states are upon practically the same kind of land, much of which was formerly timbered. Both districts have large acreage less adaptable to agriculture than to stock raising, and the favorable prices on the Boston wool market for the past year or two have acted as an incentive.

The part the railroads are taking in the development of the wool industry is largely limited to the circulation of facts regarding the possibilities of the new districts, the encouragement of sheep husbandry by low rates, inducements to settle, and by the promise of more material aid in the way of favorable rates when the new flocks become producers.

The men making the experiments are relying on the natural advantages of their location, midway between the great wool producing districts of the far West and the market on the Atlantic seaboard, to secure them more advantageous rates on their shipments than Western producers obtain and materially increase their profits. Prof. Shaw of the state university and stock experts from the Wisconsin University agree that both states are naturally adapted to sheep husbandry and that the creation of an important wool producing country is easily possible.

Not a Bad Month of May.

The individual in a chronic complaining mood on the subject of the weather should take heart from the facts regarding the last month of May. While it has brought many raw, windy, damp days—some days with really cold, tempestuous gales on the lake and along shore—the average temperature and other atmospheric conditions have been very much the same as in other years.

In this belt of territory May is not the month of vernal warmth and flowers described by the poets. Most American spring poetry is a weak copy of English poetry on the same subject. In England spring comes much earlier than in American latitudes ten degrees farther south. The warmer seas surrounding England ameliorate the air, and the English May has an average temperature about like our June.

American spring poetry, therefore, if it were really inspired, is out of season. The vernal winds, the verdurous woods, the bursting buds and the gorgeous paraphernalia of nature in its opening beauty and wealth do not appear in our climate with the first days or even weeks of spring. They come later. Our June answers to the months of spring, during which in less inclement climes the blossom of the year—

Throws all its quaint, enameled dyes

Over the wide outspread gardens and fields.

So let us be cheerful. We have the long, bright summer before us. After the summer comes the autumn, which is the grandest season of the northern year—with its harvest moons, its half veiled sunlight shining on the yellow harvest fields or on the crimson and yellow leaves of the forest, and the Indian summer, with its weird lights and dim horizons. The fruitage of the months then is gathered and reward crowns the brow of labor.—Chicago Chronicle.

A Deserter's Fate

Nina was a Filipino girl. She was the daughter of an insurgent leader. Lieutenant Butterworth and Private Chadwick had fallen prey to her snatching black eyes and pretty face, smiling coquettishly beneath a crown of ink black hair. Butterworth was head over heels in love with the girl. Chadwick, less impetuous, was caught by her sweet simplicity. Yet their friendship did not suffer. Rivalry rather than jealousy was the keynote of their relations.

"Guy," said the lieutenant one day, forgetting rank in a burst of confidence: "I can't get away from those black eyes. They follow me everywhere; they are in everything I see; but, some way, I doubt her sincerity. I fear she is trying to inveigle us to join the insurgent cause."

Private Chadwick said nothing. He prayed for a call to the field to sever this attachment. His hopes were realized—but partially. The Ninth was ordered to join in the chase of the insurgents, but the activity failed to restore to Lieutenant Butterworth his equilibrium of mind. Military duties now precluded further intercourse between the two friends. In the excitement of battle Private Chadwick gave the black eyed Nina but a small place in his thoughts.

Private Chadwick lounged carelessly in front of his tent, admiring the beauties of the setting sun, which painted the horizon with glory. He was thinking of Manila and, for the first time since he had taken the field, of the bright eyed Nina. He wondered if Butterworth had forgotten her. It was pleasant to recall those happy days.

"S-s-s-s-t!" The sound interrupted his reverie. A dirty, ragged individual stepped from behind the tent. Looking cautiously to the right and left he slipped a grimy bit of paper into Chadwick's hand.

Guy hastily tore open the note. He read:

My Dear American Soldier—Prove to me that you love me. Join us tonight. Papa will make you a big officer.

A pang went to his heart. A smoldering fire flamed up. In spite of this evidence of her insincerity, Guy now realized that his feeling for her was more than mere interest in the girl. He was disgusted to discover his weakness.

"Get out of here!" he said in a harsh voice. "Go tell the one who sent you that my flag is dearer to me than all the world, and before I leave it I will die. Go!"

The effort cost him pain. He crawled back to his tent a miserable man. The sun had set.

"Private Chadwick's sick," commented his comrades.

One ran with the news to Lieutenant Butterworth's tent. It was empty.

"The lieutenant went off with a dirty looking beggar," said the guard. "One of his charities, I guess. Said he'd be back before long."

Private Chadwick knew otherwise. He was torn one way by jealousy toward his erstwhile friend, another way by anger at the girl who had played him false. He worked himself into a fever. His comrades attributed it to sorrow for his lost friend, for, after a fruitless search, it was said that Lieutenant Butterworth had been trapped into an ambush.

In the gray dawn of morning Private Chadwick paced slowly up and down, with his gun on his shoulder, doing sentry duty. He was still weak from the fever. A rustle, as of some one moving, caught his attention.

"Who goes there?" His challenge went unanswered. He espied a form disappearing into a clump of bushes.

"Bang!" He fired, but into the air.

The corporal of the guard came running down the line. He received the sentry's report. "Marauding party of devils," But Guy did not tell of all he saw. In the disappearing form he had recognized his deserter friend.

With hasty formation Company B was sent forward. Keeping under cover of the trees, they halted on the edge of a clearing. Not more than a thousand yards away 900 Filipinos, under the leadership of a young officer in the uniform of the United States army, were stealthily advancing.

"Careful men. Don't fire. Wait for orders," cautioned the officers.

Without warning and disregarding the orders of his superiors, Private Chadwick leaped suddenly forward into the open, knelt, took careful aim and fired. The leader of the insurgents fell, killed by the bullet of his one time friend. As the shot rang out and Lieutenant Butterworth fell, for it was he, a small figure darted from the now wavering lines of Filipinos with a cry: "Xina, my American soldier!"

"Xina," shouted Guy. The American lines deployed, and now a volley carried death into the opposing force. The battle raged back and forth. Scattering were the shots which returned the regular fire of the boys in blue. The insurgents became disorganized. Their retreat became a rout.

The battle was over. The soldiers returned victoriously rejoicing. As they picked their way over the spot of the first encounter they came upon a sad scene. In the midst of the dead and dying lay the lifeless body of a pretty black eyed Filipino girl, beside the dead deserter lieutenant, and there, with his head buried in his arms and weeping like a child, was Private Chadwick. He mourned the loss of friend and sweetheart.—New York Sun.

MANY HURT IN WRECK.

One Killed and Twenty-Five Injured in Trolley Crash.

Wilmington, Del., June 1.—Three heavily loaded trolley cars on the new People's Street Railway ran away while going down a steep hill in this city Friday morning, killing one man, fatally injuring another and hurting twenty-five others more or less seriously. Joshua Gillman, who jumped from a window of the car in which he was riding, fell underneath the wheels and his body was cut in two. Elmer Jones, a conductor of one of the cars, stuck to his post, and when the rear car crashed into the one he was in charge of his legs were broken, one arm was broken and he suffered internal injuries. His death is momentarily expected. Two of the cars were closed cars and the other was an open one. Each carried nearly 100 passengers returning to the city from Brandywine Park. The line is a new one opened yesterday, and it is presumed the motormen were not yet familiar with the heavy grade.

Wishard Gets Good Place.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 1.—Official announcement has been made of the appointment of Albert W. Wishard of this city, now United States district attorney for Indiana, as solicitor of the internal revenue department at Washington. He will resign at once and go to Washington next week. Keating will succeed him as United States district attorney here. Senator Beveridge and his friends have agreed to indorse the Wishard appointment, but he and they will protest against Keating, as he is obnoxious, they say, to them for political reasons.

Davis Requisition Granted.

Springfield, Ill., June 1.—The requisition of the governor of Wisconsin for the extradition of William Davis, alias "Bloomington Red," under arrest at Quincy, Ill., and wanted in Rock county, Wisconsin, to answer to the charge of burglary and larceny, has been honored by Gov. Yates.

Train Runs from Robbers.

St. Paul, Minn., June 1.—Passengers arriving on the Burlington limited from Chicago report an attempt made about midnight to rob the train by a band of robbers. The train was running at an ordinary rate of speed just out of Savanna, Ill., when the engine struck and detonated five track torpedoes. The engineer promptly cut off the steam and was rapidly bringing the train to a stop when five men sprang from the roadside and made for the train. The engineer pulled the throttle wide open and started the train so quickly that none of the supposed highwaymen could climb aboard.

Has New Suffrage Plan.

Montgomery, Ala., June 1.—In the constitutional convention here Mr. Sanders of Limestone introduced a new scheme of suffrage reform. It provides for an educational qualification with the Louisiana grandfather clause. It also disqualifies atheists and confines officeholding to the white people. The most significant ordinance yet introduced was by General Sanford, which authorizes the state to construct the work of internal improvements for the protection of passengers and freight. It provides that convicts shall be employed in its construction.

Find Man Hanging in a Car.

Morris, Ill., June 1.—The body of an unknown man was found suspended from a rafter of a box car at Seneca, west of this city. The car came in on the Rock Island from Oklahoma. Evidently the body had been there for many days as it had turned black. Nothing was found on his person by which he could be identified and many Seneca people are of the opinion that he was murdered by tramps.

Shoots Himself to Escape Arrest.

Chicago, June 1.—Pursued by citizens and police after having stolen a horse and wagon, A. W. Griffing, formerly a private detective, escaped arrest by committing suicide. Griffing fired the fatal shot on Halsted street, fifty feet north of Monroe street, at 4:30 o'clock.

GET INSIDE.

Your Friends and Neighbors in Janesville, will show you how.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure the kidneys.

Backache comes from the inside, from the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get inside.

Here is Janesville proof that this is so:

Veteran A. F. Lee, of 61 Sharon St., carpenter, says:

For twenty years it troubled me a great deal, many days I could hardly stand at my work, and by rights should have staid at home and doctored. It was seldom that my back did not ache, and I have been completely laid up at times or four days at a stretch. When stooping or lifting sharp pains penetrated the kidneys, the secretions from those organs were too frequent, and accompanied by pain. I used all kinds of remedies but none gave permanent relief. Obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's Drug Co., I took them, and after the first three or four doses a noticeable change was brought about. I improved steadily from then on and on completing the treatment I was in good condition and am now well.

Beauty is Health.

Walnut Lake, Ark., June 3, 1900.

I thank you for the benefit I received from your advice and the Wine of Cardui I took in my terrible condition. My life was no pleasure to me at all and I was of no use to anybody. After receiving your advice and medicine I commenced taking it and began immediately to improve. The pains left me and the menopause, which came at the correct time, continued three days. I have gained strength and my weight has increased. My husband says the medicine has made me better looking than ever before.

Mrs. LIZZIE MANNELL.

Womanly health means bright eyes, rosy cheeks, clear complexion and elasticity of form. This is the youth unmeasured by years—the beauty of perfect womanhood. Beautiful women are happier and get more out of life than their sisters whose faces indicate suffering. Wine of Cardui made Mrs. Mannell "better looking" and infinitely happier because it cured her of those terrible pains. But she is no exception.

WINE OF CARDUI

Is giving thousands of women health, beauty and freedom from the dragging pains which made their lives so miserable. Wan faces, haggard eyes and emaciated forms are the results of suffering. What suffering can compare with the torture of irregular menstruation, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb? Beauty lies quickly before the ravages of such disease. The sharp pains of falling of the womb deepen the crow tracks in the face. Menstrual irregularities rob the eye of its fire and the complexion of its transparency. Leucorrhoea drains the body of its strength, but Wine of Cardui restores the natural beauty, brightens the eye, clears the complexion, rounds out the figure and brings back the vigor of health. Every druggist in this city handles $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Gentlemen:—

I enclose you contract for the supply of coffee for the Bailey Catering Company, at the Pan-American Exposition, to be held in Buffalo during the coming summer. In the selection of your coffee, in competition with samples submitted by a number of the largest Importers and Roasters in the country, I have been governed entirely by the quality of the same. My experience with the coffee supplied to me during the past year or so by your house has been so uniformly satisfactory that I feel that I could do no better than to complete this arrangement with you. The amount of coffee which this involves will probably amount to as much or more than has ever been supplied to one consumer in the same length of time, and I congratulate you upon your enterprise in having secured this contract.

Just Between Ourselves

Notwithstanding the fact that temperance stories are generally considered dry reading, once in a while one comes to the surface which would start the tears in sympathetic eyes. In a small way life's tragedy is being enacted all around us daily and many a brave if not a smiling face hides a heart story more touching in its pathos, more replete in dramatic interest than the pen of the novelist can portray.

Perhaps no one comes in touch with these hidden stories more frequently than the workers in the Francis Murphy Temperance League. Quietly and unostentatiously, this band of men, many of whom know by experience the efficiency and the benefits of the league's work, are carrying on a practical reform which has brought sunshine to many a home.

Scoffers at temperance may sneer but there are several families in Janesville who will bless the league for at least a brief season of happiness. There is genuine gratitude in their feeling for the league and it is a significant fact that the men who have signed and kept the Murphy pledge and for whom it has accomplished the most good are glad to give all credit where it is due. As an instance of this sentiment the following letter from George H. West to Al. Smith may be of interest:

"Dear Friend—I owe it to you and also to myself to thank you from my heart for all your kindness and thoughtfulness of me and others. Coming as it does from me who can and does appreciate your great goodness I feel satisfied in my mind that these few lines will be a sufficient guarantee of my honesty. I honor in ever upholding the great and good cause which you represent and of which I am a humble member, an honor of which I am justly proud and which I will stay by until I am called to a higher and nobler life. May you, Mr. Smith, reap what you have sown, an everlasting life, and leave behind you the gratitude and love of the many you have saved from the cursed liquor habit. This is a grand thought and must be to you a happiness which money can not buy. God bless you and the Francis Murphy League be the prayer of one who has been brought out of the gates of hell."

Last spring two men went into Mr. Smith's confectionery store one evening. One of them was a young man in a beastly state of intoxication. He bought a box of candy and when Mr. Smith handed out the goods he asked the young man if he would do him a favor. The young man said certainly and Mr. Smith slipped a sealed envelope into the man's coat pocket and asked him not to look at what it contained—a Francis Murphy pledge card by the way—until the next day. The man promised and left the store.

Two months later a man went into Mr. Smith's store, called him by name, and asked him if he remembered him. When Mr. Smith said he didn't the man asked him if he remembered the drunken traveling man into whose coat pocket he had slipped the pledge card. Then he told how he had opened the envelope the next day, had read the card and then had signed it. He had not taken a drink since and had spent the money which had formerly gone for "booze" in buying new clothes for his wife. He thanked Mr. Smith for his great happiness, then he went over to the Hotel Myers and returned with his wife, who had come to the city with him. If the man had seemed grateful, the woman was doubly so. This is but one of the true stories which the Francis Murphy League has made possible and Mr. Smith is but one of the faithful few who are devoting themselves to this work for the uplifting of humanity.

A young man who is well known in this city, and whose parents formerly resided here, and are frequent visitors, tells a temperance story at their expense. For several years both his father and mother drank beer, every day, having it on their table. Two years ago they engaged in a quiet discussion on the subject and the woman proposed that they should quit the habit and spend their beer money for something that would give them permanent pleasure. The husband agreed and suggested that he would invest the money in diamonds for her. Naturally she was in favor of this plan, as most any woman would be, and she now boasts three handsome diamond rings. As a lesson in economics, and as an example of the generosity of man, this is worthy of note. And yet I imagine there is many a woman who would be willing to cut the diamonds out and substitute a few of the ordinary necessities and conveniences of life and they are most generally the ones who don't derive any of the pleasures from the beer drinking.

NEWS AND NOTES OF BADGER STATE

The Wisconsin Bible conference, which has been held annually for the last six summers, will assemble this year at Poynette. The date of the gathering will be Sunday to Sunday, July 14-21. Besides a goodly number of pastors, evangelists and Christian workers from Wisconsin, the following well known teachers from abroad promise to be present: Pastor Judson E. Conant, Dubuque, Ia.; the Rev. Wm. E. Biedewolf, pastor and evangelist, Logansport, Ind.; the Rev. James R. Pratt, evangelist, Albany, N. Y.; Miss Kate C. Moser, Mellen, Wis.

A stranger was discovered in the Bayfield court house bleeding profusely from a wound in his throat. The man was taken into custody and gave his name as Thomas Kelly. He said he was tired of life and wanted to die, and so had cut his throat. One of the wounds is deep but it is not thought to be necessarily fatal. The doctors think Kelly is insane.

Frank Kleinstieber and Mike Norton, while out fishing, captured a young fawn, about four or five weeks old. They were fishing on Butter-nut lake, directly opposite the Lake hotel, when they heard the barking of a hound, and shortly after saw a fawn dart out of the brush and make directly for the boat. They pulled toward the animal and hoisted it into the boat, it being quite exhausted. The Landreth Pea Canning Co., of Manitowoc, is making a new venture this season. Having planted all its pea seed, the company is now experimenting with fifty acres of beans, which is now being put in. This is a new branch of the Landreth company.

The contract for a new stone church and monastery to be built in Green Bay by the Franciscan Fathers of Sobels has been let to J. H. Servotte for $48,523. The building is to be massive in structure and gothic in style and architecture. The contract calls for its completion in 1902.

A careful canvass has been made of St. Croix and adjoining counties and of some towns along the Omaha and Wisconsin Central, and it is found that while the frosts of the last week were disastrous to strawberries and small fruit the grain and vegetable crop escaped injury. The strawberry crop is a total failure.

MODES FOR WOMEN.

One of the very appreciable features of the summer hat is its lightness in weight as well as in color. While it may be huge in size, it can be a feather-weight all the same. The Lamballe hat, very round and flat, is one of the popular shapes and is trimmed with flowers and a shepherd's bow of black velvet ribbon falling onto the hair behind.

Many of the latest shapes are wide brimmed bending down a little in front and at the back, where the bow of black velvet ribbon is finished with long ends.

The flower hat, which extends well over the forehead in a sort of peaked shape, is very fashionable, finished with the bow and ends of black velvet ribbon. A bow of black velvet of some sort seems to be an indispensable factor in the latest millinery, as it makes a pretty contrast with flowers and all the gauzy effects employed.

Very pretty toques are made by stitching rows of straw in a net foundation, and joining them over the net with a cross stitch of gold thread. This sort of hat requires very little trimming except a rosette or a bunch of flowers at one side.

A pretty hat of the Lamballe order is made of cream lace over white chiffon, brim gracefully curved and trimmed around with a wreath of small pink roses. Rosettes of white chiffon underneath tip the hat a little at one side.

One unusual style of hat in black crinoline turns sharply off from the face in front in a sort of Napoleon shape, and directly in the center, fastening the brim to the crown, is a bunch of pink roses. On each side under the brim are two rosettes of black velvet ribbon, with loops on one side falling over the hair. There is another bunch of roses at the back.

You may as well expect to run a steam engine as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver and you may know that his liver is torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating, often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at People's Drug store and King's Pharmacy.

Magnetism A SUCCESS.

There can be no real success without true merit.

PROF. N. R. FUNK'S SUCCESS in MAGNETIC HEALING IS REAL.

Cures without the aid of drugs, surgery or electricity.

PROF. N. R. FUNK.

Mrs. Hannah Armfield, of No. 125 Glen St., says: For nearly 2 years I have been troubled with a dull aching pain in my sides, also had stomach trouble and constipation, appetite poor, sleeplessness, nausea and vomiting. I have tried all kinds of medicines and received little or no benefit. I began to improve from the very first treatment from Prof. Funk and after taking nine treatments I feel perfectly well, and it is my pleasant duty to him and to suffering humanity to acknowledge the benefit I received from magnetic treatments.

If you are suffering, investigate this method of curing disease. That the method as practiced by Prof. Funk is a wonderful success can no longer be doubted, as many responsible people of this community have tested its merits and are now enthusiastic in their praise of the good results obtained.

If suffering, you owe it to yourself to try this method of healing.

Will Cost About $3,000.

The cemetery association will expend about $3,000 on improvements this year and it is expected that additional improvements will be made each year. Oak Hill cemetery with its beautiful trees and undulating grounds is naturally one of the most picturesque and beautiful in the country and at a comparatively small expense it can be made a place of which the city may well feel proud. The cemetery association deserves the commendation of the public for the active move which it is making in the right direction. The credit for the decorative plan which is being followed is due to the decoration committee, of which W. T. Sherer is the chairman. He is taking great interest in the work and spends a great deal of time in planning the decorative work and in executing his plans.

MEN AGREE NOT TO KISS THEIR WIVES

Thirteen Husbands Living at Mount Hope, Kansas, Form a Peculiar Organization.

Wichita, Kan., June 1.—Thirteen men of Mount Hope, a small town near here are adherents of the belief that men should not kiss women. All of the thirteen are married and they have just formed a club known as the Mount Hope Married Man's Anti-kissing club.

All of the members are quite prominent in the business circles of that place and the organization of the club has been kept under cover for three weeks, but the secret has finally leaked out. In a statement to reporters President Wilson said:

"All this talk about our wives going to sue for divorce because we have pledged not to kiss them is rot of the worst kind. We went into this with the understanding that it was to be carried out as an experiment, and we will stick to it if the women uphold us in it. Of course, every member has taken a pledge not to kiss his wife for one year, but there is a proviso that if we all get tired of the proposition we can disorganize the club and no one will have broken a pledge."

"I have been in it now for about three weeks, and am perfectly satisfied with the arrangement, as is my wife. I find that kissing is a filthy habit and that without it a man can love a great deal more strongly."

He Was Alphabetical.

A flashily dressed young negro applied to Assistant Secretary Allen of the treasury department for a job the other day.

"What can you do?" asked Allen.

"Anything, sah, anything."

"What state are you from?"

The applicant drew himself up proudly and said, "I'm from the first state in the Union, sah."

"From New York?"

"No, sah; from Alabama, sah."

"But Alabama isn't the first state in the Union."

"Alphabetically speakin, sah," replied the negro, "alphabetically speakin."—Washington Star.

Queer Freak of Nature.

A. Wilson, F. R. S., in the London Lancet cites the case of an antelope kid, killed in South Africa, which had an elephantine head and proboscis, while the tail was of the proboscidean rather than of the antelope type. The author supposes the pregnant ewe to have been frightened by an elephant.
